OUT OF ACTION

Everald La Ronde's injury sustained during the Walsall Cup Tie was at first feared to be a cracked bone in his ankle, but after hospital X-Rays, it was diagnosed as severe bruising. If Everald has to miss today's game, let's hope he will be fit for the forthcoming Cup Tie at Windsor & Eton.

Club COMMENT

To start this column, I would like to say a big 'thank you' to our supporters, who really got behind the team last Saturday for our match with Walsall. I don't know whether you, the fans, realise how important it is to the lads, but Trevor Morgan did comment to me that as soon as he ran onto the field, he could sense the Cup Tie atmosphere and that the fans were really willing the team to do well, and what a difference this made to the game!

After last Saturday's tremendous win, all of the lads were waiting eagerly to hear Mondays Cup draw, and this was received with mixed reactions when we heard that we had drawn a Windsor & Eton away, as we all know that a League team playing away to a Non-League team is never easy, but we had the experience of playing Windsor & Eton before a couple of seasons ago, in a pre-season friendly in which we drew 1-1.

I would also like to give a mention to Poole Town, who have had a good cup run themselves. I was among the spectators last Sunday to watch their teams performance against Newport County, and felt that on the day, if any team deserved to win that game, it had to be Poole.

Today we welcome the Officials, Players and supporters of Bolton Wanderers. Managed by former Nottingham Forest captain John McGovern. Bolton are a team with a long tradition who will be endeavouring to get back into the higher division this season.

THE THIRD SCENE

by Tony Pullein

What a dramatic finish there was to Bolton's first round F.A. Cup tie at Tranmere last Saturday! With the score at 1-1 the Trotters were awarded a penalty in the last minute. Jeff Chandler duly slotted home his second spot-kick of the season and Bolton, so it seemed, were through to the next round.

But Tranmere had other ideas. And, while Bolton were still celebrating, Neville Powell slipped in an equaliser for the home side to force a replay at Burnden Park last Tuesday.

All five Third Division sides to be eliminated at the first attempt last Saturday were ousted by rival Third Division clubs. To most people outside the Bournemouth area, AFC's smashing 4-0 success over Walsall was one of the biggest surprises, not so much for the outcome as for the size of the victory.

Walsall came to Dean Court unbeaten in 12 matches, of which ten had been won.

Preston went out at Scunthorpe to a solitary goal and Orient said goodbye to their Cup hopes this season at Wembleton.

But Wrexham were well and truly hammered at home by Sheffield United to the tune of 5-1. Keith Edwards scored four of the Blades' goals — his second four-goal hit of the season. He scored all the goals in a 4-0 victory over Gillingham on the opening day of the season. Saturday's effort took his tally for the season to 16 to edge himself just in front of Bolton's Tony Caldwell to become joint top of the Third Division scorers' chart.

The fifth Third Division side to go out was Port Vale who lost 1-2 at home to Lincoln City.

Newport County were a trifle lucky not to go out to Poole Town on Sunday. They held on to draw 0-0 after their goalkeeper had made a fine save from Derek Courtney in the 71st minute. Poole's decision to switch the game to Sunday paid dividends for the crowd of 4,470 was bettered on only six other grounds in the first round.

Rotherham United were held to a goalless home draw by Fourth Division Hartlepool for the second time this season. When the sides met in the first round of the Milk Cup, they drew 0-0 at Millmoor. Rotherham were hoping to repeat their 1-0 second-leg Milk Cup victory at Hartlepool when they met in the replay this week.

Exeter City are still awaiting their first home win of the season after being held to 1-1 at home by non-League Maidstone United. The Grecians have now played ten home games this season without a win.

Hyde United agreed to switch their derby tie against Burnley to Turf Moor and, as a result, drew the round's best crowd of 7,723. Burnley won the game comfortably with a goal from Malcolm Waldron immediately before the interval and a goal from former AFC player Kevin Reeves, from a penalty, five minutes from the end.

Brentford came from behind to take a 2-1 lead at Dagenham but a goal in the last minute enabled the home side to draw and go to a replay at Griffin Park this week.

BOLTON WINDS.

When Bolton were relegated from the Second Division at the end of last season, manager John McGovern decided to place the club's future largely in the hands of the club's younger players.

Goalkeeper Simon Farnworth is this season playing League football for the first time and forward Steve Saunders was also given his League debut. Forwards Steve Thompson and Warren Joyce had been given only rare first-team outings prior to this season. Neil Redfern, a midfield player, and striker Simon Rudge were both introduced to the side last season whilst Wayne Foster has been in the squad for just over two years.

Neil Berry, a defender who often gets nominated as substitute, had made only 12 League appearances before this season.

During the summer Mr McGovern made two new signings, defender Peter Valentine coming from Huddersfield with striker Tony Caldwell being signed from a local club Horwich RMI.

Though this is his first season in League soccer, Caldwell is now one behind the Third Division's leading scorer with 15 goals — and that includes a five-goal hit against Walsall!

Defenders Brian Borrows and Ray Deakin were both signed by Mr McGovern, who took over as manager in the 1982 close-season.

So that leaves only forward Jeff Chandler and centre-back Gerry McElhinney from the players who were established first-teamers when he arrived. McElhinney, incidentally, won his first cap for N. Ireland in this sensational 1-0 victory in West Germany last week.

Bolton may not be among the front runners at the moment but they are nicely placed to launch a promotional bid.

The Trotters have won two away games — at Bradford City (2-0) and Port Vale (2-1). They drew at Exeter (2-2) and Lincoln (0-0) but they lost at Gillingham (0-2), Scunthorpe (0-1), Bristol Rovers (1-2) and Plymouth (0-2).

Bolton took a shock exit from the Milk Cup. Though they defeated lowly Fourth Division Chester 3-0 in their home leg, they lost the return 0-3 and went out on penalty deciders.

Last Saturday they were held to a 2-2 draw at Tranmere in the first round of the FA Cup.

The Bolton club began as Christ Church Sunday School F.C. in 1874 but changed to its present title when members fell out with the vicar, who insisted all meetings must take place at his church. Instead, the headquarters were switched to a local pub! Only a few years later they began paying players — with 2s. 6d. bonus when they won but half-a-crown knocked off their pay when they lost. They were fined 2d for using bad language.

Bolton became original members of the Football League in 1888 and spent a total of 58 seasons in Division 1.

It's in the F.A. Cup that Bolton have won most of their fame — winners four times (1923, 1926, 1929 and 1958), runners-up on three occasions (1894, 1904 and 1953). They appeared in 12 semi-finals.

Their highest League positions were 3rd in Division 1 in 1892, 1921 and 1925. In 1909 and 1978 they were Second Division champions and they finished runners-up in 1900, 1905, 1911 and 1935.

Bolton's best years were the 'twenties. How the champagne flowed as their team of all-stars returned with the F.A. Cup three times in seven years. Their team for the 1923 final was one fit for the opening of one of the world's finest stadiums. About 200,000 broke into Wembley that day and, those who managed to see the match, were spellbound by the play of such famous forwards as David Jack, the two Smiths — Joe and J. R. — and Ted Vizard.

When Bolton previously hit their lowest point, with relegation to Division Three in 1971, they recovered to win that division's championship two years later.

This time they hope to return to Division Two at the first time of asking.

Cherries YOUTH

The Colts gained revenge for a recent 5-1 defeat at the hands of Dorchester by knocking them out of the Dorset Youth Cup by 3-1 on their own ground.

It was a workmanlike performance by the whole team and after absorbing early pressure started to exert their authority on the game.

The Colts took the lead from a corner on the left, Andy Griffiths took a short one to Robert Beecham who sent in the cross and Dave Feeney headed well over the Dorchester keeper.

The Colts increased their lead from another set piece. Steve Legg found Lee Bolson who cracked the ball into the net from close range.

The Colts came close on more than one occasion, in particular Bolson hit the post following good work by Robert Blake.

Dorchester looked to be back in the game when they were awarded a penalty but Mike Greeno's well taken spot kick was brilliantly saved by John Clark.

In the second half the Colts again came close to scoring on a number of occasions and it was no surprise when they made it 3-0. A fine through ball from Beecham found Blake clean through and he made no mistake.

Dorchester scored a fine consolation goal when Glen Borthwick raced onto a free kick to head past Clark.

The Colts tried hard to score more goals and Legg, Elms and Blake all had shots blocked on the line.

Team: J. Clark, L. Pilbeam, R. Beecham, K. Jennings, D. Feeney, S. Joyce, T. Spender, S. Legg, A. Griffiths, L. Bolson, R. Blake. Subs: R. Wilson, D. Elms.

The Colts, despite a terrible handicap fought back admirably at Weymouth to snatch a 4-4 draw.

They took the lead in the first minute when Darren Elms put Martin Skivington clean through and he made no mistake. The Colts then paid the penalty of relaxing and Weymouth took full advantage of poor marking to score following a corner. Another corner produced another goal as the Colts failed to clear.

The Colts equalised against the run of play when Robert Blake put Lee Bolson through to score comfortably.

Weymouth make it three when a mid-field player burst through to smash the ball past Clarke.

The Colts then suffered two injuries which limited their resources. Darren Elms was replaced by Andy Griffiths and then John Clarke in goal had to leave the field with a bad cut. Steve Joyce took over in goal and performed with great credit for the rest of the game. Steve Legg normally a winger played at centre back.

However Steve Joyce had no chance when once again Weymouth scored from a corner.

In the second half the Colts managed to get on top but left it very late before reducing the lead. Robert Blake forced his way into the penalty area only to be tripped and Andy Griffiths converted the penalty.

With only minutes remaining Robert Beecham showed some quick thinking to take a quick free kick for Robert Blake to blast in the equaliser.

Team: J. Clarke, L. Pilbeam, T. Spender, R. Beecham, S. Joyce, M. Skivington, R. Wilson, D. Elms, R. Labram, R. Blake, L. Bolson. Subs: S. Legg, A. Griffiths.

CANON LEAGUE NEWS

"FOOTBALL'S A KNOCK-OUT", SAYS MINTER

Alan Minter is now punching for League football. The former world middle-weight boxing champion has become a director of Third Division Exeter City.

With so many London-based business interests including a pub at Penge and running a sporting club at the Europa Hotel in Mayfair, Exeter seems more than a good 15 rounds away from Alan's Sussex home.

"Not so", he says. "I'm really an adopted West Countryman. I am a great friend of Clifford Hill, the president of the Amateur Boxing Association's South-West Region. He is also Exeter City's chairman and I used to go down to Devon to relax after all my big fights."

"I was delighted when Clifford asked me if I would join the board. I've always been a bit of a football fanatic. Watching two good teams trying to outthink each other is more like boxing than most people imagine."

"I do miss the drama and the excitement of boxing though I'm not too sorry that people have stopped throwing punches at me. Now I find that football gets the adrenalin running like boxing used to."

"Because they are the nearest clubs to my home I have seen a fair bit of Brighton and Crystal Palace. I was at Millwall the other week, but it is not the same when you haven't a passionate interest in one side. My wife Lorraine says I'm a different bloke when I've been watching Exeter."

"I should think so, too. When they built a bar in the vice-president's club they named it after me. Now if somebody can tell me the name of another boxer who has had a bar on a football ground named after him ..."

"I spend a lot of time putting something back into boxing at amateur level. I think I can offer League football something in return for the pleasure it gives me."

"I've been able to pass on quite a bit to the Exeter lads in training. Not with the ball, I assure you—I don't think the manager, my old friend Gerry Francis, the former England captain, rates me too highly—but on the fitness side. And if anybody reckons footballers don't sweat it out, then they've only got to ask me."

"It is fascinating being involved with one of the smaller clubs. Of course, I get a thrill visiting one of the big club grounds, but if Exeter is typical of the lower division clubs there is a great feeling of all belonging together — the family atmosphere."

"The fans appreciate that there isn't as much money about as we'd like. They understand that we are trying to survive at a time when survival is the name of the game at our level."

"I think our players go out and play for the fans as much as for the club and their wages. When the fans get behind the team, my mind goes back to the big nights at Wembley when all the fans were behind me."

"For me, football at the grass roots of the Canon League is the place to be. I do like to be close enough to the action to feel the punches!"
